Christmas Sale of Practical and ArtisticFURS
1-5 OFF

Besides the pleasure of selecting from assortments that are admittedly the broadest and richest in the city, at prices that will net you a good round saving in every instance, there is the added knowledge that they are Furs of the very choicest qualities and that you are selecting gifts that show the acme of good taste and good sense.

The sale includes every piece in our splendid showing, from the plainest Neckpiece to the grandest Coat, which is truly an assemblage of the latest approved styles in artistic Furs—designed to meet the taste and requirements of practical and fastidious patrons; a showing that the women of Paw Paw will appreciate for its true worth and artistic workmanship now made specially attractive by Christmas time, and exceptionally low prices.

We wish to strongly emphasize the fact that owing to the scarcity, Furs have been and are still rapidly advancing at a rate that will necessitate a 40 and 50 per cent reduction next Season to bring you the same advantages of the 20 per cent cut of today.

WOMAN'S COLUMN

The following shows the strong confidence that Oregon's governor has in the women of his state. If they have a fair chance to prove their worth he will not be disappointed:

"Governor West of Oregon showed himself a fearless friend of equal suffrage throughout the recent campaign. He has now set precedent at defiance by inviting Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway, the veteran president of the Oregon Equal Suffrage Association, to write the official proclamation which he is to issue, announcing the enfranchisement of Oregon's women, and to sign her name to it along with his.

For the first time in Colorado's history a woman has been elected State Senator. She is Mrs. Helen Ring Robinson of Denver, book reviewer of the Rocky Mountain News. She will take her seat when the General Assembly convenes in January.

A considerable number of women have sat in the lower house at different times, but a woman senator is an innovation—even in Colorado, with its twenty years of equal suffrage.

In private life Mrs. Robinson is the wife of a Denver lawyer. She took a leading part in the successful campaign made a few years ago to keep Denver's corrupt water company from securing a twenty-year renewal of its franchise, and is a woman highly respected. Even before she takes her seat in the Upper House a movement has been launched to make her president pro tem of the senate, and she stands a fair chance, as the Democrats are in the majority. Mrs. Robinson was elected on the Democratic ticket. In fact, so popular is she that she ran far ahead of the ticket.

Only one other woman in the United States was ever chosen State Senator. Mrs. Martha Hughes Cannon was elected to the Utah Senate some years ago, and did good service there.

"The fact that Eve didn't wear clothes is no reason we should dress that way, and the fact that our grandmothers didn't vote is no argument against our voting. We must keep up with the times as well as with the styles." This original argument was made by Mrs. Frieda Bliss in a debate on woman suffrage the other day at the Fellowship House in Chicago. The affirmative won.

Amid a storm of applause, a resolution was adopted by the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs, demanding a State law forbidding the granting of marriage licenses unless applicants could produce guarantees of their good health.

PAW PAW PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Interesting Items From the Seat of Learning Contributed by Our Special Correspondent.

AGNES CAGNEY.

School closes Friday night for two weeks' vacation.

Wilhelmina Nei is a sixth grade pupil who is ill.

The third grade pupils, under the direction of Miss Graham, will present a play entitled "A Test in Santa Claus Land," Friday afternoon. In addition to this there will be several songs and recitations.

Miss Butler's pupils will have a Christmas table and a short program. Miss Spencer was absent Monday on account of sickness.

A representative of the Michigan Children's Home society visited the school this past week and delivered short addresses in the various rooms, asking for contributions to this noble cause. $3.50 was collected in the high school and $8.00 in the grades. This is a work in which we should all be interested and it is too bad that more was not donated.

I have been requested to say that the Seniors did not win the championship series, but that they are to be continued in the spring. Of course I favor my own class, but Mr. Mayer was my authority for the statement.

The members of the high school faculty seem to be faithful believers in the old text "It is better to give than to receive." Our hearty thanks are due them for Christmas presents which are being presented to us in the shape of tests.

Margaret Hall returned to school Monday morning after a long and severe illness.

The seventh grade's picture study for December is Raphael's "Madonna of the Chair."

Miss Chaffee's room is the most beautiful in the building this week. The pupils have decorated it extensively and certainly have reason to be proud of the result. A short Christmas program is being given each morning.

The banner for the cross-country championship was presented to the 7th grade Tuesday.

All the patrons of the school are cordially invited to attend the Christmas exercises of the school.

Wednesday afternoon Rev. J. Wood Miller gave an interpretative reading of "Niebelungenlied," an old Scandinavian legend, in the assembly room. Mr. Miller came highly recommended and he certainly gave a pleasant afternoon.
